

Purdue University Yanagi Shibu

Hosts Instructor

Karl Koch - 15th Dan

Saturday, April 13, 2013

Join us on the West Lafayette, IN, Purdue University Campus for a Bujinkan seminar with Shihan Karl Koch. General review of the most current events in the Hombu will be reviewed and a study of "totokuhyoshi" - the sword as shield, will be studied.

Participation is open to all interested students of martial art and styles. Beginners welcome – no experience necessary. Wear your current martial art uniform or standard gym attire with long sweat pants.

Note: No video cameras or live blades/weapons are permitted.

Where: Matthews Building - Room 304 (MTHW-304), Purdue University, West Lafayette, IN 47907

Date: Saturday, April 13, 2013

Time: Registration starts at 10:30 – 11:00am. Training starts 11:00am – 4:00pm (with breaks)

Cost: $60.00 / per person.

Contact: purdueyanaishub@purdue.edu for further information regarding information, lodging, arriving at the Purdue, or a campus map.

